

Don and Jocelyn Pinkard Bio

---

Don and Jocelyn Pinkard are co-owners of Hidden History DFW (HHDFW), a privately owned African American History tour company.

The company has operated for three years and has provided African American history tours for thousands of people in the Dallas/Fort Worth Texas area.

They are also very involved in supporting local African American history through involvement with Dallas' African American Museum (AAM), the Dallas Historical Society (DHS), the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH), Remembering Black Dallas (RBC), and many other organizations in the Dallas area.

Retired from careers in corporate life and education respectfully, Don and Jocelyn have been married for 39 years and have two adult children and four grandchildren.